DOUBLE ENVELOPE COMPLETES THE ACQUISITION OF THE WOLF ENVELOPE COMPANY

Roanoke, VA (December 2, 2010) - Double Envelope and its parent company, BSC Ventures, have completed the acquisition of the operating assets of the Wolf Envelope Company (www.wolfenvelope.com). Founded in 1923, Wolf Envelope has offices in Troy, Michigan and Angola, Indiana where it operates a 90,000 square foot manufacturing facility.

Double Envelope (www.double-envelope.com) is a custom envelope manufacturer with plants in Roanoke, Virginia, Gainesville, Florida and Baltimore, Maryland. The Baltimore facility was acquired from Oles Envelope Corporation earlier this year. The parent company of Double Envelope, BSC Ventures, (www.bscventures.com) is headquartered in Roanoke. BSC also owns Convertagraphics, a four-color inline web printer and converter with operations in Roanoke, and Champion Printing Inc. in Cincinnati, Ohio. Champion Printing was acquired in 2006, and now operates as a division of Convertagraphics with a focus on direct mail.

Wolf Envelope manufactures a full range of custom envelopes and targets transactional mail. The acquisition is a strategic expansion of Double Envelope's presence in the Midwest. BSC plans to continue to operate the Angola plant and transition the name to Double Envelope. "Wolf Envelope provides the resources and capacity to support our growth strategy. More importantly, Wolf Envelope has a tradition of excellent customer service which fits perfectly with the customer driven reputation of Double Envelope. Our objective is to expand manufacturing capabilities without losing the personal and responsive service that has fueled Double Envelope's growth," stated Brian Sass, CEO of BSC Ventures.
